

David A. Ward, Q.C.

David A. Ward was a former member of Council of the International Fiscal Association and also of the Canadian Branch of IFA. He was a founding partner in the law firm of Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP. An internationally recognized expert on tax treaties and tax treaty interpretation, he wrote frequently on the subject and spoke as a lecturer or panellist on tax treaties for the Canadian Tax Foundation, the International Fiscal Association and the International Bar Association. His published views on tax treaties have been quoted and adopted by Canadian courts. He delivered the second travelling lectureship series for the Canadian Branch of IFA in 2000 dealing with the permanent establishment and business profits. In 2006 he delivered the eighth travelling lectureship on the interpretation of income tax treaties with particular reference to the commentaries on the OECD model. This lectureship series was accompanied by a full book with the same title.
